

ADVISORY BOARD MEMBER

Todd Kalas

Broadcaster, FOX/Sun Sports

With the Rays since their inception and with the start of the 2015 MLB season, Todd begins his 18th year with the team and 23rd in the majors. His primary role includes 150 telecasts on Sun Sports as pre-game and postgame host and in-game reporter.

Todd has also filled in every season with play-by-play and color on both the Rays television and radio networks. He previously worked on the New York Mets (1992-1993) radio and Philadelphia Phillies (1994-1996) television broadcast teams.

After graduating with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University in 1988, Todd began his baseball career with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991. Todd has worked the last 12 off-seasons with Cox Sports Television in Louisiana, handling college football, basketball and baseball play-by-play. He is also part of the University of South Florida basketball radio broadcast team and fills in as host for the Tampa Bay Lightning on Sun Sports.

Todd is the son of the late Phillies broadcaster Harry Kalas, a 2002 Hall of Fame inductee. He is single and resides in Tampa.
